Dress Code:

Due to the nature of the week and the opportunities that students will have during the week, it is important that students dress appropriately. The following are some guidelines as well as a day by day packing list. Please note: While the clothing items needed by the students should not change, the day they are worn may change.

Day by Day Guidelines:

Day 1: Business Casual: For men, dress pants or khaki pants and button down or polo style shirts should be worn. For women - dress pants, khaki pants, knee length skirts, knee length casual dresses, or dressy calf-length capris should be worn (Please note: knee length capris are consider shorts and are not appropriate business casual attire). Jeans and shorts are not permitted. Sleeveless shirts and sleeveless dresses are not permitted.

Day 2: During the day, business professional - coat and tie for the men and dresses, skirts, dress pants or suits for the ladies. Flip- flops are not appropriate while in business professional attire. In the evening, enjoy your one casual night while you tour the monuments! Jeans and knee length shorts are ok as well as T- shirts as long as there are no questionable slogans. Sleeveless shirts are not permitted

Day 3: Same as Day 1.

Day 4: During the day, same as Day 1. In the evening, business professional or evening attire (this is your chance to dress up as we will be going to the National Press Club). Concord Students

Day 5: Same as Day 1

General Guidelines:

- No sleeveless shirts or sleeveless dresses are allowed during SLU 201. You may wear sleeveless shirts/ dresses as long as you also wear a sweater/ jacket over it that does have sleeves.
- Shorts, dresses, & skirts worn at SLU 201 (both during and outside of conference hours) must be of knee length
- As you can see from above, you need four business casual outfits, two business professional outfits (Day 2/ Night 4), and one casual outfit (Night 2).
- It is generally hot and sometimes rainy in Washington during this time of the year so cool, breathable clothing, a rain poncho, and a backpack to carry water while touring is a good idea.
- Jeans and shorts are only permitted on Night 2 while touring the monuments.
- Comfortable shoes should be worn while we are out touring in Washington – your feet will thank you!
- Please note that meeting rooms are typically cold which is why we suggest you bring a sweatshirt.
